Operation of Chartered Financial Analyst

1717. SHRI MAHENDRA MOHAN: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

whether it is a fact that the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) has stopped the Indian operations of the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Institute of the US;

if so, what would be the fate of 10,500 students who are enrolled for the CFA course, which costs around 1 lakh rupees; and what are the reasons behind this move?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMAT1D. PURANDESWARI): (a) to (c) The All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) has notified regulations for entry and operation of Foreign Universities into India for imparting Technical Education. As per these regulations, Foreign Universities wanting to conduct Technical Education programmes in India require AICTE's prior approval. The Chartered Financial Anaylst (CFA) Institute of Charlottesville, USA, which has been offering CFA programme in the financial area of Management, was advised by AICTE in May, 2007 to cease its operation in India due to non-compliance with the above regulations. The CFA Institute challenged this decision in the Delhi High Court, which upheld the AICTE's decision in December, 2007. The CFA Institute has filed a Letters Patent Appeal against this order. Thus this matter is sub judice.
